George is a monkey. It was brought from his home in Africa by “The Man with The Yellow Hat”. They are best friends and they live together in their city. Do you want to know what jokes George will make in urban life? Come to the library to find out .

Finally, I would like to introduce three sets of stories, those books are Captain Underpants, Dogman and Ricky Ricotta's Mighty Robot. Their author is Dav Pilkey, he is a very famous writer. These stories are exciting, adventurous and funny. Captain Underpants was made into a movie, and Ricky Ricotta's Mighty Robot was also made into an animation. These books are very popular and suitable for students from P.4 to P.6 .

Title: Maisy Learns to Swim

Author: Lucy Cousins

Publisher: Candlewick Press

Recommended By Miss Ng Mei Lei

Hello! Boys and girls! Do you know how to swim? The weather is hot in summer. Do you enjoy going to swim with your friends? Where will you go swimming, the beach or the swimming pool? What things do you need for swimming? Goggles? Swimsuit? Towel?

I have just read a book called “Maisy Learns to Swim” because I don’t know how to swim. The storybook is funny and easy to read. I love the colourful and attractive drawings.

In the story, Maisy is a little mouse. Splish-splash! Maisy’s going to a swimming lesson with her friends, Eddie and Tallulah together. Their swim teacher is named Poppy. Not only swimming, they learn to kick their feet, blow bubbles, try floating and even splashing too. What a great lesson! They all have a wonderful and happy time.

If you want to know more about the characters or swimming, you may go to the library and read the book.

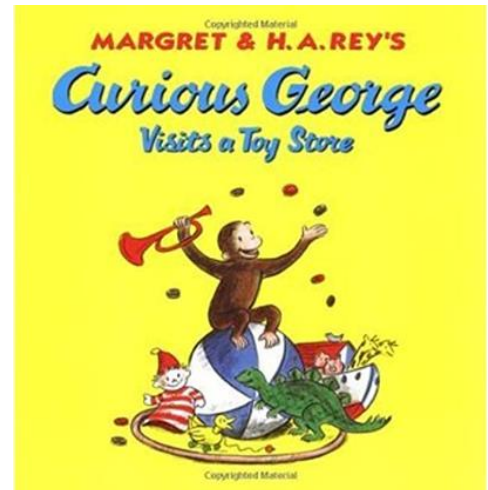

Title: Curious George Visits a Toy Store

Author: Margret & H. A. Rey's

Publisher: Houghton Mifflin

Recommend by Wong Man Ying

Have you been to a toy store? What kind of toys do you like? Teddy bears or robots? I sometimes brought my two sons to a toy store when they were small. They loved looking at the toy trains and robots there.

George was a little monkey and he was always very curious. One day, George and the man with the yellow hat went to a new toy store. At first the owner of the toy store did not allow George to go inside. However, George was so fast that she could not stop him.

There were so many toys in the toy store. George didn't know how some of them worked. George saw some hula hoops and he was curious. He tried to get one but there was a terrible crash. The whole pile of hula hoops dropped and bounced everywhere. The owner was angry with George but some customers got him and played with him. Then they bought the hula hoops. George also helped some children get the toys from the shelves. How did the children and the owner feel? What did the owner do? Please come to the library and find out the ending!

Title: Captain Underpants and the Tyrannical Retaliation of the Turbo Toilet 2000

Author: Dav Pilkey

Publisher: Scholastic

Recommended by: Miss Regina Ying

Captain Underpants and the Tyrannical Retaliation of the Turbo Toilet 2000 is the eleventh epic novel written by Dav Pilkey. It was released in 2014. George and Harold travel through time back to the present with Captain Underpants and Melvin. They all have different missions in this time-travelling adventure. Melvin is strangely helpful because he wants Captain Underpants to help him to deal with the resurrected Turbo Toilet 2000. George and Harold make a major mistake at school and face being separated next school year. So they decide to travel back to yesterday and undo the mistake. Now there are two Georges, two Harolds, one Turbo Toilet and more chaos.

Can Captain Underpants handle them?

This book definitely keeps up the exciting plots of the preceding ten books in this series. And the potty humour is absolutely irresistible to kids. So, children, why not have a break and come to the library to enjoy it?

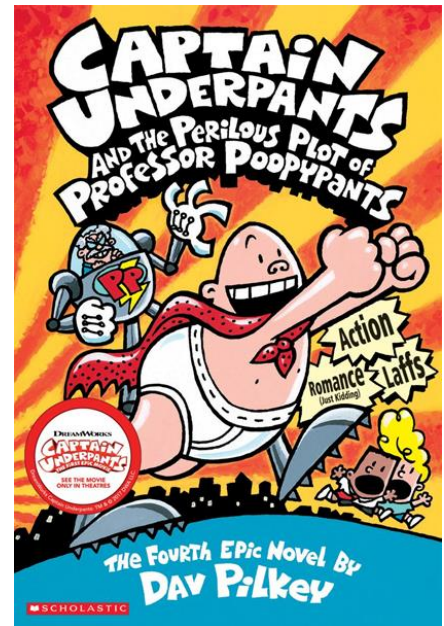

Title: Captain Underpants and the Perilous Plot of Professor Poopypants

Author: Dav Pilkey

Publisher: Scholastic

Recommend by Miss Monica Lai Yuen Wah

George and Harold are fourth-grade students who love telling jokes and playing pranks on teachers. One day, they had to see their principal, Mr Krupp, as they played pranks on others again. Unbelievably, George and Harold hypnotised Mr Krupp! They made him think that he was a hero called Captain Underpants but actually he was just so hilarious. He barely wore a pair of underpants and he thought he could save the world! Fortunately, George and Harold gave him some super power juice then he really got super powers!

One day, a scientist called Professor Pippy P. Poopypants wanted to work in George and Harold's elementary school. His name was totally ridiculous, isn't it? When he introduced himself to the students, everyone laughed at his name. That's why he got mad. He made a giant robot and tried to take revenge on those who laughed at his name. He shrank the whole school with one of his inventions and forced the kids to change their names to silly ones just like Professor Poopypants or else they would get zapped twice!

Will Captain Underpants save the kids from danger? Read the book "Captain Underpants And the Perilous Plot of Professor Poopypants" to find out!

Title: Curious George's Dinosaur Discovery

Author: Margret Rey & H. A. Rey's

Publisher: Houghton Mifflin

Recommend by Miss Ko Man Wai

Are you fascinated by dinosaurs? Dinosaurs lived so long ago, before any of our lifetimes, in the very basic natural world. Many of you may have read books or watched movies about dinosaurs, but have you ever thought of visiting a dinosaur museum? Or even digging dinosaur bones?

In Curious George's Dinosaur Discovery, George, a curious little monkey, and his friend, the man with the yellow hat, visited the Dinosaur Museum. They took a van to a rocky quarry where many scientists were digging for dinosaur bones. George was very curious and would like to help with the dig. Do you think George could successfully find out some bones, or just messing things up?

If you are interested in the story, go to the school library and borrow the book to find out!
